

Connections UnitingCare Christmas Card

Christmas is a Great Season to Give

This year's picture features in a series of four books entitled 'My Families' designed for children in Permanent Care. All children need the stability and love of a forever family to grow and develop to their full potential. The Connections UnitingCare Permanent Care program facilitates stable, secure and caring family environments for children who cannot live with their own families due to risk or experience of abuse or neglect.
